Clovis Unified School District is in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley and serves the Clovis and Fresno areas. Clovis Unified Schools have been recognized numerous times as one of California's Distinguished Schools. Clovis schools' athletic teams regularly take part in State and National Championships and have won multiple state, national and international awards.

About the Location: The original inhabitants of Fresno were the Yokuts people. Fresno became a town in 1856 after the gold rush and was named for the large number of ash trees found in the area. Fresno is the large city the nearest to Yosemite national park and it isn't too far from Sierra National Forest, Kings Canyon National Park and Sequoia National Park. With such important national parks nearby, as well as a historic downtown, including Fulton mall and Chinatown, there is something for everyone in Fresno.

Extracurricular Activities: Odyssey of the Mind, History Day, Science Fair, Spelling Bee, Mock Trial, Mathematics, Engineering and Science Association (MESA), Future Farmers of America (FFA), yearbook, journalism, Academic Decathlon and essay contests, Asian Club, Environmental Club, International Thespian Society, Tutoring Club, Computer Science Club, Women's Empowerment Club, Math Club and Interact Club

Sports Offered: Badminton, Baseball, Basketball, Cross Country, Football, Golf, Gymnastics, Soccer, Softball, Swimming, Tennis, Track, Water Polo, Wrestling and Volleyball
