

Fabius-Pompey Central School District

 search.student-management.com/property/fabius-pompey-central-school-district/

The goal for the Fabius-Pompey Central School District is for all students to aspire to achieve the high academic goals. The district works hard to build an educational foundation for its students that will prepare them for their future endeavors. The district has been ranked highly by the US News and World Reports, coming in at 106 in New York State and 806 in the entire country. The district provides students with a good balance of core curriculum, advanced level courses and extracurricular activities.

About the Location: Fabius, New York is a small, quaint community located just 25 miles from the City of Syracuse. Residents are able to enjoy a rural lifestyle while maintaining close proximity to Syracuse, where there are many cultural and shopping opportunities are available. Fabius is also surrounded by many institutions of higher learning, including Syracuse University, Le Moyne College and Colgate University. For students looking for outdoor recreation, Fabius provides great access to a many ski slopes. Hiking is also available, with Highland Forest Park providing over 20 miles of picturesque trails.

Extracurricular Activities: Bookstore Club, Cooking Club, Envirothon, Future Teachers Club, High School Drama, High School Musical, Math League, Mock Trial, National Honors Society, Science Olympiad, Students Class Councils, Tech Club, Teen Institute and Yorkers Club

Sports: Baseball, Basketball, Cross Country, Soccer, Track and Wrestling