Green Bay Public Schools is one of 367 school districts in the nation being honored by the College Board for increasing AP course offerings and improving the percentage of students earning scores of 3 out of 5 or higher. The district's mission of "Embracing learning for all as our highest priority," rings true more now than ever. Maintaining one of the highest levels of public education in the nation is what keeps families, generation after generation, in Green Bay.

About the Location: Green Bay, Wisconsin is made famous by the NFL's Green Bay Packers, the smallest American market to have a professional team and a recent Super Bowl winner.
