

Seattle Public Schools

 search.student-management.com/property/seattle-public-schools/

Seattle Public Schools is committed to providing an excellent education for every student. The district offers rigorous learning opportunities, enhanced by strong support from families, volunteers, and community partners. The core of Seattle Public Schools is effective learning and quality teaching built on a rigorous curriculum. They expect all students to maximize their potential as every student is challenged to learn at or above grade level.

About the Location: Seattle, Washington is a city built on hills and around water, in a mild marine climate. Seattle is proud of its arts and cultural institutions, the many live theaters, and the downtown art museum. Seattle is home to the Pioneer Square and the Pike Place Market as well as many beautiful parks. Its impressive roster of professional and collegiate sports make for a great evening for its visitors and citizens alike.

Extracurricular Activities: Art Club, Chess Club, Debate Club, Future Business Leaders of America, FIRST Robotics, Key Club, Link Crew, National Honor Society, Newspaper Club, Outdoor Club, Surf Club, Yearbook Club, Ultimate Frisbee, Model UN, La Union Latina, Family, Career & Community Leaders of America

Sports Offered: Baseball, Basketball, Cross Country, Football, Soccer, Swimming, Softball, Tennis, Track, Wrestling, Volleyball