

The Connecticut IB Academy

 search.student-management.com/property/the-connecticut-ib-academy/

The Connecticut IB Academy's mission is to encourage students to be internationally minded and to recognize the common humanity in people. 100% of students enrolled at the school are IB candidates. With the motto "to know is not enough," The Connecticut IB Academy focuses on helping students become productive members of society who have the skills needed to succeed in high school and beyond. Welcoming exchange students is one of the many ways that the IB Academy promotes international understanding.

About the Location: East Hartford is a suburb of Hartford, Connecticut, the state capital. This charming town is two hours from Boston MA and New York City. Hartford is known as the home of Mark Twain and Harriett Beecher Stowe and has many sights of historical importance to visit. Yale University is less than an hour away and there are numerous ski resorts nearby. Connecticut is a state with four seasons and beautifully colored leaves can be appreciated every fall. Many miles of hiking trails can be enjoyed, as well as kayaking, fishing, and a wide range of other outdoor sports.

Extracurricular Activities: Night of 1,000 Dinners, Model United Nations, Interact- Student Advisory Board, Abelon Walk, Walk for Haiti, National Honor Society, Judo and River Cleanup

Sports Offered: Badminton, Basketball, Baseball, Cheerleading, Cross Country, Football, Golf, Soccer, Softball, Swimming, Tennis, Track, Volleyball and Wrestling

