Achieve more

ONCAMPUS is proud to work in partnership with the University of Sunderland to offer high-quality university preparation programmes for international students on the University campus.

The University of Sunderland is an innovative, forward-thinking university with high standards of teaching, research and support, which sits at the heart of one of the UK's most up-and-coming cities. It has strong links with industry and business, and works closely with some of the world's leading companies.

The University has recently invested more than £130 million in its two campuses – the Sir Tom Cowie Campus by the riverside, and the City Campus in the city centre – so students can enjoy first-class facilities and high-quality courses that are perfectly placed to ensure a life-changing student experience.

Professional accreditations

Many University of Sunderland programmes have professional accreditations from organisations such as:

- Chartered Management Institute (CMI)
- Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD)
- National Council for the Training of Journalists (NCTJ)
- Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET)

Sunderland's partnerships

Most departments enjoy close collaboration and partnerships with a number of industrial and global partners. These include:

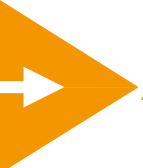

Work experience

Many of Sunderland's undergraduate degrees offer sandwich programmes which enable students to gain valuable work experience with companies such as:

- Nissan
- IBM
- British Telecom
- PricewaterhouseCoopers

"I had heard that Sunderland's courses in Pharmacy were really good, and having compared them to others I decided Sunderland was better as it was affordable and it would take less time to graduate. When I arrived in January it was cold! But I liked it a lot; it was green and natural and I found it easy to settle in. My teachers were really nice; they made sure every student understood what was being taught. I had 7-8 students in my class and the teacher gave us group work to discuss between each other, presentations and seminars, which was a beneficial way to learn as we have to research by ourselves. My English is much better than before I started the programme. I enjoy the University gym and used the library a lot, which is open 24 hours a day."

Faculty of Business, Law and Tourism

Studying Business

Many courses have gained recognition from bodies such as the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development

Sunderland Business School is a member of the Chartered Association of Business Schools, which has gained recognition in a number of league tables. As part of your course you will be offered many opportunities to work closely with businesses like Caterpillar, Microsoft and Nissan to ensure that your learning is informed by the most current developments in business.

Exemptions

Students can get ahead with a number of exemptions, for example BA (Hons) Accounting and Finance provides exemptions from nine of the professional examinations of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA), speeding up your progress towards qualified status.

Work experience

Work placement employers include IBM, Procter & Gamble, BT, Nissan, Marriott Hotels, PricewaterhouseCoopers and Adidas.

Studying Law

Students studying Law benefit from an award-winning teaching team, the opportunity to advise real clients as part of a Student Law Clinic and perfecting their skills in a mock court room. All this is supported by learning facilities that include a well-equipped library and 24-hour access computing facilities.

Students advise real clients as part of Sunderland's Student Law Clinic

"I chose to study Law in the UK because it offered a faster process – three years in the UK compared to other countries where it can be double that. I chose Sunderland because it gave more advantages – the cost of living is low and the environment is conducive to learning. It's not a big city so I can focus more without getting distracted. My teachers were very helpful, they kept asking if I had any difficulties and about my well-being, so I felt very at home with them. The teaching style is very different, there was more self-study. We had lots of discussion in class and were encouraged to communicate. My class was pretty mixed with different nationalities so I learnt about lots of other countries and beliefs, values and cultures, which was very interesting."

Faculty of Technology

Engineering students have the opportunity to join the Formula Student team which designs, builds, tests and races cars

Studying Computer Science

Computer Science at the University of Sunderland achieved high ratings in the National Student Survey 2016:

- Joint 2nd in the North East for assessment and feedback
- No. 2 in the UK for personal development

A number of courses are accredited by the UK's Chartered Institute for IT, the British Computer Society. Students on accredited courses will automatically gain exemption from some of the requirements for progressing towards chartered status.

The University of Sunderland stands out for the quality of opportunities for work placements and industrial projects with signed partnerships with Sony PlayStation, and engagement with Microsoft, Accenture, IBM and British Airways.

Studying Engineering

The University invested over £1 million in state-of-the-art engineering technology and equipment in 2017. Dedicated engineering laboratories, a state-of-the-art metrology suite (where you will use Computer-Aided Drawing (CAD) software), an engineering library and workshop facilities allow you to gain vital practical experience required by industry.

Europe's most productive car plant, Nissan Motor Manufacturing (UK) Ltd, is right on the doorstep, providing significant input into the design of Engineering courses at Sunderland.

"I heard a lot about the UK and the quality of its education so decided I wanted to study here. The teachers at ONCAMPUS were very helpful and welcoming and they taught me how to study more independently, and I understand the importance of time management, research and report writing. I learned a lot from the mix of cultures and can now even write my name in Chinese! Sunderland has some good places to spend your free time, like the bowling alley, football pitch and cinema, but if I want to go to a bigger city centre I can travel to Newcastle very easily."

Faculty of Health Sciences and Wellbeing

Studying Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

The University of Sunderland's long-standing Pharmacy School was founded in 1921, making it one of the most well connected in the UK. Staff within the Department include qualified pharmacists and research scientists in biomedical science, chemistry, pharmacology, dermatology and clinical therapeutics.

State-of-the-art facilities include The Living Lab – a unique, purpose-built environment, housing a mock hospital ward, pharmacy dispensary and examination rooms.

The Sciences Complex offers state-of-the-art facilities with over £14 million of investment in new equipment

Studying Psychology

Both of the University of Sunderland's BSc (Hons) courses are accredited by The British Psychological Society (BPS). Graduates who achieve at least a second class honours degree are eligible for the graduate basis for chartered membership of the BPS. This is the first step towards becoming a chartered psychologist.

Psychology facilities include a cognitive laboratory which includes experimental cubicles, a computing laboratory containing 30 PCs equipped with psychology-specific software such as SPSS, fOCUS II Observation Psychology and PowerLab machines for measuring physiological responses such as heart rate, galvanic skin response and brain activity.

"Sunderland is calm and friendly and I found it easy to settle in. The teachers at ONCAMPUS would joke around in class so they were never boring and they used Moodle so that we could review the class notes afterwards. I felt really challenged at ONCAMPUS. I learned how to research properly, how to make my work look professional, how to source. We would get homework to help improve our research skills and our knowledge of subjects and then give presentations in class, which made me nervous but improved my courage!"

School of Arts and Creative Industries

Official member of the BBC's Developing Talent education partnership

Studying Media and Communications

Students benefit from some of the most advanced media facilities in any UK university such as mediaHUB, the University's own digital publishing and broadcasting space, state-of-the-art TV and radio studios and digital post-production facilities, computer suites, journalism suites and a surround-sound cinema.

Industry accreditations include AVID and SADIE with courses such as BA (Hons) Broadcast Media Production being awarded the Creative Skillset Tick.

Professional partnerships

The University of Sunderland maintains close links and partnerships with many organisations and employers.

These include:

- The Royal Television Society
- The Radio Academy
- The Society of Editors

"My first impression of Sunderland was that the people were friendly and that it was nice and quiet. Good for study, but close enough to Newcastle for a night out. The ONCAMPUS induction week offered lots of activities to help us settle in and see the facilities of the University including CitySpace and the gym for example. Living in Sunderland itself is not too costly and good value for money, and I tend to spend my spare time with friends going out. My time at ONCAMPUS was a really good experience and set me up in a number of ways for progression to the University of Sunderland. Study skills such as research projects I had only done once before, helped show me exactly the sort of detail I should be including."

"Sunderland is really beautiful, quite good for students as it's quiet, which means we can focus on our study. The teachers at ONCAMPUS would help us in everything that we needed, personally or academically, and our one-to-one sessions were the opportunity to talk about any specific issues. For me it was really wonderful to make friends with other nationalities, which helped us improve our English as we would speak it every day. I love this city and campus, and the ONCAMPUS teachers were really helpful in improving my English and knowledge for the future."

“There is little distraction in Sunderland, which is good for me. It was easy to settle in, find my way around and make friends with students of different nationalities. My teachers are helpful, open to anything you want to ask. The style of teaching is different as they want you to understand and give your own answer rather than repeating exactly what they said, which is a much better way to learn.”

Student Cover

It's essential for international students to take out adequate insurance while studying. 'Student Cover' has been created in partnership with Endsleigh, the UK's largest student insurance provider. With both standard and premium options, 'Student Cover' is specifically designed to meet your needs while studying with us – from the time you set off to the moment you arrive back home.

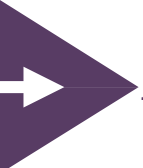

For more information about Student Cover visit www.oncampus.global/insurance

Under 18 Supplement

Under British Law, anyone under 18 is legally classed as a child and such students often have different needs for welfare and support. ONCAMPUS provides a range of extra tailored services covered by the under 18s supplementary fee, which is automatically added to the student's account. Students have access to experienced welfare personnel who provide both academic and emotional support before and after arrival, as well as an independent guardian from the professionally-accredited College Guardians initiative.

Student Support

We know international students have different needs from those already in the UK, so that's why we've designed a comprehensive student support system that ensures you feel supported every step of the way.

You'll get the opportunity to sign up to sports and social activities during induction

Before you arrive
Once you've confirmed your place at ONCAMPUS, we'll help with a whole host of things such as visas, what to expect on arrival in the UK, insurance and how to get to the centre. We'll provide information on accommodation, finance and things to bring with you, from essential forms and certificates to advice on extra clothes for winter!
Our fabulous pre-arrival app contains all sorts of useful information for you to download before you arrive at ONCAMPUS.

Induction
The induction week at ONCAMPUS is one of the most important weeks in helping you to settle in. You'll meet new friends, pick up your timetable, meet your personal tutor and academic teachers, tour the centre and the University and sign up to sports and social activities.
There's lots to do before your lessons start and alongside the fun things there might also be a little bit of form filling too...

Faculty visits, experience days and campus tours help you settle into student life

Voted by you for you, our student ambassadors represent the views of students and help shape and influence the student experience in collaboration with centre staff

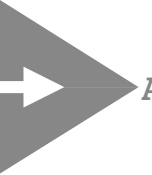

University of Sunderland | Bwalya Sakala /Zambian | Intended progression: BEng Mechanical Engineering

"The student to teacher ratio is really low so teachers get to know us well. It also means we learn everything more easily than in a big class where teachers just teach and you can't learn about any personal weaknesses or areas you want to improve. It's really good like that."

Throughout the year
Our support before you arrive is just the beginning. Not only do you have access to all the standard things you'd expect – your own personal tutor, small tutor groups and our online academic platforms (such as Moodle) – you'll also find the following:

- Academic support:
We'll make sure you stay on track with your study plan, meeting any targets and setting up additional academic support if you are struggling in any area.
- University integration:
To prepare you for a smooth progression to the University of Sunderland, there is plenty of activity to make you feel part of the University from day one. Heads of Faculty presentations and Faculty visits, experience days, campus tours and the ability to join sports and social groups are just a few.
- Monthly activity calendars:
We have lots of exciting organised activities, published every month, for you to join in with as little or as much as you like.

Next Steps

- 1

Submit your application by one of the following methods:

 - Online: www.oncampus.global Email: admissions@oncampus.global
 - Fax: +44 (0)1223 346181
 - Post: Admissions Office, ONCAMPUS, Kett House, Station Road, Cambridge, CB1 2JH, United Kingdom.

Please remember to include all relevant documentation:

 - Academic transcripts (with translations if not originally in English)
 - Evidence of English level
 - Passport.

Additional documentation may be required depending on the course. Our Admissions team will contact you should this be the case.
- 2

Our Central Admissions team will review your application.

We will send you an offer letter which will list any outstanding conditions. We will remove any conditions that have already been met. If we think the course is not right for you, we will suggest an alternative.

If we have any queries about your application, we will contact you for further information.
- 3

To accept your place on the course you will need to meet all the remaining conditions, including payment of the deposit/ registration fee or proof of government sponsorship. We can only confirm your place once all conditions have been met, although once the deposit is paid we will hold a place for you.

Please note that if you require a visa to study with us, you may need to provide additional evidence to comply with the visa regulations in the UK. These are the requirements of the government and not of ONCAMPUS. Your assistance in meeting these requirements is much appreciated.
- 4

Once you have paid your deposit and met all the conditions of offer, we will confirm your place and send you a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) or a Certificate of Enrolment (CoE) if you do not need a CAS.

If you need a visa, you will need to use your CAS/CoE to support your visa application. Please note a CAS can only be issued three months before the start of the course.
- 5

We will send you pre-arrival information.

The accommodation application form will be included in the pre-arrival information. You should complete the form, selecting your preferred option, and return it to ONCAMPUS Sunderland by email to liveinsunderland@oncampus.global
- 6

You will then need to apply for a visa if you require one to study in the UK. It is your responsibility to obtain a visa before you travel to join the course.

If you do not have a valid visa for studies in the UK, you will not be able to join the course. You are required to pay at least the 1st term's tuition fees before you begin your studies at ONCAMPUS. You should arrive on the weekend before the start date of the course, please check your CAS or CoE for further details.

Newcastle is the closest international airport to ONCAMPUS Sunderland. You can transfer to your accommodation by Tube, train, coach or taxi. Please be advised that public transport is the cheapest option, please refer to pre-arrival information that we send you for more details.
