Heidelberg, once the capital of the Palatinate and the spiritual centre of Calvinism, lies in the lovely Neckar valley and is distinguished by its particularly mild climate.

Over the years, Heidelberg's beauty has drawn a number of poets, painters and scientists. In the early 19th century, the city on the Neckar became the most important centre of German Late Romanticism. Inextricably linked with this epoch are the poets Arnim, Brentano, Goethe and Eichendorff.

The Ruprecht-Karls University of Heidelberg, the oldest university in Germany, has further strengthened its leading position in the Shanghai Ranking, the academic ranking of world universities. In the 2016 ranking, the university Ruperto Carola has been declared the best university in Germany for the third year in a row. In June 2012 the University's elite status was endorsed by the Excellence Initiative of Federal and Regional State Governments. In the CHE 2015 ranking, Heidelberg is featured for eleven subjects, most notably Medicine.

Many monuments bear witness to the Neckar city's diverse history. Sitting approximately 70 metres above the river Neckar, the city's landmark, the elector's castle, rises from the slope of Königstuhl on its very own mountain. Its ruins are among one of the most impressive sights to behold on any tour of Germany (in 2014, the Castle was the most popular destination for international holidaymakers in Germany). Visitors climbing up to the castle first pass through the gate into the famous "Hortus Palatinus" garden, created at the beginning of the 17th century. From the castle garden, there is a wonderful view of Heidelberg, including the Philosophers' Walk, which lies on the opposite bank of the Neckar. Fascinating buildings that date back to a variety of epochs surround the inner courtyard.

Situated in the Royal Wine Cellar is the world's largest barrel, which was once filled with wine. It has rarely failed to impress - except in the case of Perkeo, the barrel's gnome-like guard. Once, when asked if he could drink the barrel dry, his answer was a nonchalant "Perché no" - why not? - which is how he came to earn his name

The baroque townhouses and their ornamental facades and portals are a striking feature of any walk round the Old Town. The heart of the Old Town is the market place, with the Evangelical church of the Holy Ghost and the grand renaissance building "Zum Ritter". Leading away from the church of the Holy Ghost are many old alleyways lined with pubs and restaurants. Spanning the Neckar is the Old Bridge, one of the most beautiful stone bridges in Germany.

Not far from University Square is the Jesuit church. Built in the early 18th century and adorned with several figures of the Virgin Mary and saints, the church is the Old Town's symbol of Catholicism regaining its foothold in Heidelberg following the upheaval of the Thirty Years War and the Palatinate War of Succession. The wooded hills around Heidelberg cloak the city in a handsome green. The surrounding area, which includes the Neckar valley castles, the German wine route, ancient cultivated landscape along the Upper Rhine and the Odenwald mountains, offers a wealth of experiences waiting to be enjoyed. Proximity to Frankfurt, Karlsruhe and Stuttgart airports means Heidelberg is easily accessible to its guests from all over the world.

The name Heidelberg stands not only for tradition and romanticism, but also for a modern and world-class location for science and business. Thus, the tradition-steeped university, the Academy of Sciences, the German Cancer Research Centre (DKFZ), four Max Planck institutes, the European Laboratory for Molecular Biology (EMBL), the Print Media Academy of Heidelberg Druckmaschinen, the SAS Institute and several research centres belonging to international companies are all located in Heidelberg. Such a concentration of the sciences is unparalleled in Germany and forms the basis for a dynamic, science-orientated economy that elevates Heidelberg - despite a population of just 150,000 - to its position as one of Germany's leading economic centres.

Heidelberg is also one of Germany's leading cultural centres, as demonstrated by its wealth of museums and theatres. Literature is ubiquitous in the city and as of December 2014 Heidelberg bears the honorary title of "UNESCO City of Literature". Together with the neighbouring cities in the Rhine-Neckar metropolitan area (Mannheim, Ludwigshafen, Speyer, Schwetzingen and Worms, to name the most important), Heidelberg offers a large variety of nationally significant cultural events:

- Heidelberg Castle Festival
- International Film Festival Mannheim-Heidelberg
- Heidelberg Theatre Festival
- Heidelberg Literature Festival
- Heidelberg Spring Festival
- Heidelberg "Stückemarkt" Theatre and Drama Festival
- Festival of German Film
- Mannheim Summer Mozart Festival
- Schwetzingen Castle Festival
- Niebelungen Festival - Worms
- International Schiller Festival - Mannheim
- International Street Theatre Festival Ludwigshafen
- Photography Festival Mannheim Ludwigshafen Heidelberg
- Enjoy Jazz, International Festival for Jazz - Heidelberg
- Ludwigshafen Festival

Our language school is located in the Darmstädter Hof Centrum, Hauptstrasse 1, 3rd floor.

The F+U language school is situated in the middle of the university city's historic centre, and just a few metres from the Neckar.

The school building offers fantastic views of the Old Town, the castle and into the Neckar valley.

Today, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the largest language schools in Germany. Over 10,000 language learners and exam candidates a year participate in the language courses and examinations. Every year, learners come from over 100 countries to participate in the German courses. Thanks to its internationality, the school offers a unique opportunity to get to know people and their various languages and cultures, and to practise freshly acquired language skills, whether during break-time conversations in the corridors or in the school's atrium, or while participating in the cultural and sporting activities offered several times a week.

With 70 multimedia-equipped classrooms (up to 85 in summer), 3 Internet rooms with 50 PCs, free Internet access and Wi-Fi, and a central location in Heidelberg, the Academy of Languages offers everything to ensure that the language learning experience in Heidelberg is an exceptional one.

Several halls of residence with around 500 rooms, a boarding school, apartments, a school-owned hotel and several host families offer year-round accommodation to learners arriving from all over the world.

Specialising in German as a foreign language, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the world leaders in the provision of German courses, whether in the form of intensive lessons in the mornings and afternoons, or extra-occupational evening courses. As an international test centre, the Academy of Languages stands for exceptional quality in language teaching. Alongside the best-known assessments such as TOEFL® and TestDaF (Test Deutsch als Fremdsprache), the language institute offers the following examinations: TELC (The European Language Certificates, including Zertifikat Deutsch, Zertifikat Deutsch für den Beruf), TOEIC®, LCCI (London Chamber of Commerce and Industry) exams, ECDL (the European Computer Driving Licence), TestAS (aptitude assessment for international applicants for higher education), WiDaF (Test Deutsch in der Wirtschaft) and OnDaF (online German language assessment).

The intensive and evening courses are offered year round and are attended by employees of international companies and research institutes such as SAP, Lufthansa, Heidelberger Druckmaschinen, HeidelbergCement, Siemens, Daimler, NEC, Heipha, Brunel, BASF, EMBL, HITS, the DKFZ, Heidelberg University and many more businesses and scientific institutes. International sports stars from the region's well-known sports clubs, including 1899 Hoffenheim, Rhein-Neckar-Löwen and SV Sandhausen participate in the Academy's German courses.

A particularly important part of the Academy is the Vocational College for Foreign Languages, founded in 2004, which offers the opportunity to study full time towards the following state recognised qualifications: FremdsprachenkorrespondentIn (Foreign Language Correspondence Clerk), EuropasekretärIn (European Secretary), WelthandelskorrespondentIn (Multilingual Correspondence Clerk) and Translator. F+U is one of the very few education providers in the country to offer state recognised vocational language training for Japanese. Recognised status has also been awarded for Chinese, English, French, Spanish and Russian.

The F+U Academy of Languages offers internship programmes within the framework of Erasmus+. This EU programme gives young people the chance to participate in a language course abroad in either another European country or in Heidelberg, and then complete a commercial internship.

The Academy of Languages rounds off its range of courses with the organisation of language tours and the International Prep School (preparation for the Feststellungsprüfung).

Berlin is Germany's largest city - and by far its most exciting.

Since the fall of the Iron Curtain and overcoming division by the Berlin Wall, Berlin has undergone architectural and cultural regeneration and enhancements that have redefined it as a 21st century world city. But Berlin is still mindful of its turbulent history. In the steel and glass cupola of the Reichstag and the post-modern shopping centres are the reflections of opulent historic buildings dating back to the imperial era - alongside the monuments and memorials of the post-war period. The rebuilding of the Prussian City Palace is set to capture the appeal of Berliners' cosmopolitan sense of tradition at its very best: from 2019, behind the historic façades, the ultra-modern Humboldt Forum will be a gathering point for all the world's cultures and nations. Berlin's creative and start-up scene draws its inspiration from this richness of contrasts; as of 2006 the city has even been honoured with the title 'UNESCO City of Design'.

Over 150 concert halls and theatres, three opera houses, 200 museums and art collections, 440 galleries displaying the works of over 6,000 contemporary artists, and some of the world's most popular nightlife, including the Berghain, all vie for the attention of over twelve million visitors a year from all corners of the globe. As a crowd puller, the relatively new Berlinale, which takes place in three hundred cinema auditoriums, now rivals the established European film festivals in Venice and Cannes. Meanwhile, music lovers are spoiled for choice by some of the best symphony orchestras and choirs in the world. The Museum Island, with its five monumental buildings, is not only a United Nations World Heritage Site, but also the centre of the most renowned 'Long Night of the Museums', founded here in 1997 and replicated many times all over the world. There are plenty of memorable nights out to be had the rest of the year too: Berlin's vibrant pub and café scene just never sleeps, with its enticing restaurants, bars and all-night cafés and supermarkets ('Spätis') in the diverse and distinct neighbourhoods ('Kieze'). During the festive season Berlin offers more Christmas markets than any other European city (eighty in 2016 alone), and later hosts the largest New Year's Eve party on the continent, with a million visitors peacefully welcoming in the New Year between the Victory Column and the Brandenburg Gate.

By day, Germany's capital city presents itself as a centre of science par excellence. Its 38 universities and institutes of higher education - including some of Germany's most renowned schools of art, design and music - currently attract greater numbers of students than any other federal state. Around 176,000 students were registered here during the winter semester 2015/2016. Both the renowned Humboldt University (founded 1810/11) and the Freie Universität Berlin, which achieved special merit for its 'International Network University' future strategy concept, were recognised as German elite universities for the third time in succession within the framework of the Excellence Initiative. The Berliner Charité is the largest medical faculty in Europe, while the Berlin State Library, which holds over ten million printed volumes, is the largest scientific universal library in the German-speaking world.

Berlin is not only the European Union's second largest city (nine times the size of Paris), but also its greenest. A third of Berlin's total area consists of greenery, woodland and water. 440,000 trees line the streets, and together with 29,000 hectares of urban woodland, countless parks and public gardens - such as the Berlin Tiergarten park and the Botanical Garden in Dahlem - they sustain the unrivalled and famed 'Berlin air'. Two nearby natural paradises, the Grunewald and Spreewald, are ideal for walking, camping, swimming and sailing.

The two airports, Tegel and Berlin-Schönefeld, offer convenient international connections to the city, as do the many reasonably-priced long-distance buses that depart regularly from the central bus station (ZOB) en route to other European destinations.

Language Courses at F+U

The non-profit F+U Group of Companies is one of the largest private education providers in Germany. It has centres throughout the Federal Republic as well as in other European countries and cooperates with state and private education providers all over the world. In the capital city of Berlin, F+U specialises in professional and continuing further education, as well as commercial retraining and qualifications.

The well-established, successful dual model bachelor degree programmes and the modern distance, full-time and dual master's programmes at the University of Applied Sciences for Business, Technology and Culture (Hochschule für Wirtschaft, Technik und Kultur - HWTK) offer young people practice-focused education that is increasingly orientated to international students - and now also taught in English.

Since 2013, the F+U Academy Of Languages Berlin has further developed this range of programmes with academically demanding language and computer courses of an international calibre. The Berlin school is thereby continuing a tradition first begun in 1980 in the romantic Neckar city of Heidelberg. The parent of all F+U language schools, the Academy Of Languages Heidelberg welcomes over 10,000 learners and examination candidates from over 100 countries every year and is one of the largest and most successful language schools in Germany. Additional schools in Tenerife and Darmstadt have gone on to expand the scope and location of the courses offered.

Whether they are international students keen to improve their German in readiness for higher education or prepare for the Feststellungsprüfung with the help of our International Prep School; or local people aiming to improve their foreign language skills, for example in Business English or TOEFL preparation - all of our language learners in Berlin can profit from this innovative network of teaching experience and educational competence. Our flexible in-house training is also the preferred solution for companies and diplomatic representatives.

Upon completion, a bilingual internship certificate (German/English) is available. Where required, non-EU nationals must provide a work visa for the internship (e.g. a Working Holiday visa). Please apply with a letter of motivation and a Europass CV exclusively to languages.berlin@fuu.de. Processing fee: €200.

Heidelberg, once the capital of the Palatinate and the spiritual centre of Calvinism, nestles in the picturesque Neckar valley and is known for its particularly mild climate.

Over the years, Heidelberg's beauty has attracted a number of poets, painters and scientists. In the early 19th century the city on the Neckar became the most important centre of German Late Romanticism, inextricably linked with the poets Arnim, Brentano, Goethe and Eichendorff.

Germany's oldest university, the Ruprecht-Karls University of Heidelberg, 'has once again asserted its leading position among universities in Germany' and in 2017 upholds its reputation as one of the best-ranked universities in the world. The University library tops the prestigious BIX Library Index where, in each of the four assessment categories it is 'the only major academic university to place among the leaders - and for the sixth consecutive year' (Heidelberg University in International Comparison, Heidelberg University homepage).

Many monuments bear witness to the Neckar city's diverse history. Overlooking the river Neckar some 70 metres below is the city's most famous landmark, the Elector's Castle, standing on the slope of Königstuhl on its eponymous mountain. Its ruins are among one of the most impressive sights to behold on any tour of Germany (in 2016, the castle was one of Germany's most popular destinations for international holidaymakers). Visitors climbing up to the castle first pass through the gate into the famous 'Hortus Palatinus' garden, created at the beginning of the 17th century. From the castle garden, there is a breathtaking view of Heidelberg, including the Philosophers' Walk, which lies on the opposite bank of the Neckar. Fascinating buildings dating back to a variety of epochs surround the inner courtyard. Situated in the Royal Wine Cellar is the world's largest barrel, which was once filled with wine. It has rarely failed to impress - except in the case of Perkeo, the barrel's gnome-like guard. Once, when asked if he could drink the barrel dry, his answer was a nonchalant "Perché no" - why not? - which is how he came to earn his name.

The baroque townhouses and their ornamental facades and portals are a striking feature of any walk round the Old Town. The heart of the Old Town is the market place, between the Evangelical Church of the Holy Ghost and the grand renaissance building 'Zum Ritter'. Leading away from the Church of the Holy Ghost are many old alleyways lined with pubs and restaurants. Spanning the Neckar is the Old Bridge, one of the most beautiful stone bridges in Germany. Not far from University Square is the Jesuit Church. Built in the early 18th century and adorned with several figures of the Virgin Mary and saints, the church is the Old Town's symbol of Catholicism regaining its foothold in Heidelberg following the upheaval of the Thirty Years War and the Palatinate War of Succession. The wooded hills around Heidelberg cloak the city in a handsome green. There is also plenty to explore in the surrounding area, including the Neckar valley castles, the German wine route, ancient cultivated landscapes along the Upper Rhine and the Odenwald mountains, while proximity to Frankfurt, Karlsruhe and Stuttgart airports means Heidelberg is easily accessible to its guests from all over the world.

The name Heidelberg is synonymous with tradition and romanticism, but it also stands for a modern, world-class location for science and business. Heidelberg is home to the tradition-steeped university, the Academy of Sciences, the German Cancer Research Centre (DKFZ), four Max Planck institutes, the European Laboratory for Molecular Biology (EMBL), the Print Media Academy of Heidelberger Druckmaschinen, the SAS Institute and several research centres belonging to international companies. Such a concentration of the sciences is unparalleled in Germany and forms the basis for a dynamic, science-orientated economy that elevates Heidelberg - despite a population of just 150,000 - to its position as one of Germany's leading economic centres.

Heidelberg is also one of Germany's leading cultural centres, as demonstrated by its wealth of museums and theatres. Literature is ubiquitous in the city and as of December 2014 Heidelberg bears the honorary title of 'UNESCO City of Literature'. Together with the neighbouring cities in the Rhine-Neckar metropolitan area (Mannheim, Ludwigshafen, Speyer, Schwetzingen and Worms, to name the most important), Heidelberg offers a large variety of nationally significant cultural events:

- Heidelberg Castle Festival
- International Film Festival Mannheim-Heidelberg
- Heidelberg Theatre Festival
- Heidelberg Literature Festival
- Heidelberg Spring Festival
- Heidelberg "Stückemarkt" Theatre and Drama Festival
- Festival of German Film
- Mannheim Summer Mozart Festival
- Schwetzingen Castle Festival
- Niebelungen Festival - Worms
- International Schiller Festival - Mannheim
- International Street Theatre Festival Ludwigshafen
- Photography Festival Mannheim Ludwigshafen Heidelberg
- Enjoy Jazz, International Festival for Jazz - Heidelberg

Our language school is located in the Darmstädter Hof Centrum, Hauptstrasse 1, 3rd floor.

The F+U language school is situated in the middle of the university city's historic centre, and just a few metres from the Neckar.

The school building offers fantastic views of the Old Town, the castle and into the Neckar valley.

Today, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the largest language schools in Germany. Every year, over 10,000 language learners and exam candidates a year participate in the language courses and examinations, and learners from over 100 countries participate in the German courses. Thanks to its internationality, the school gives learners a unique opportunity to meet people and find out more about their language and culture, and to put new language skills into practice - between classes or enjoying a break in the school's atrium, for example, or taking part in the cultural and sporting activities we offer several times a week.

With 70 multimedia-equipped classrooms (up to 85 in summer), 3 Internet rooms with 50 PCs, free Internet access and Wi-Fi, and a central location in Heidelberg, the Academy of Languages has everything to ensure that the language learning experience in Heidelberg is an exceptional one.

Several halls of residence with around 500 rooms, apartments, a school-owned hotel and several host families offer year-round accommodation to learners arriving from all over the world.

Specialising in German as a foreign language, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the world leaders in the provision of German courses, whether in the form of intensive lessons in the mornings and afternoons, or extra-occupational evening courses.

As an international test centre, the Academy of Languages stands for exceptional quality in language teaching. Alongside the best-known assessments such as TOEFL® and TestDaF (Test Deutsch als Fremdsprache), the language institute offers the following examinations: telc (The European Language Certificates, including C1 Hochschule, Zertifikat Deutsch, Zertifikat Deutsch für den Beruf), TOEIC®, LCCI (London Chamber of Commerce and Industry) exams, ECDL (the European Computer Driving Licence), TestAS (aptitude assessment for international applicants for higher education), WiDaF (Test Deutsch in der Wirtschaft) and OnSet (online placement test for German and English).

The intensive and evening courses are offered year round and attended by employees of international companies and research institutes such as SAP, Lufthansa, Heidelberger Druckmaschinen, HeidelbergCement, Siemens, Daimler, NEC, Heipha, Brunel, BASF, EMBL, HITS, the DKFZ, Heidelberg University and many more businesses and scientific institutes. International sports stars from the region's well-known sports clubs, including 1899 Hoffenheim, Rhein-Neckar-Löwen and SV Sandhausen participate in the Academy's German courses.

One outstanding feature of the Academy is the Vocational College for Foreign Languages, founded in 2004, which offers the opportunity to study full time towards the following state recognised qualifications: Fremdsprachenkorrespondent/in (Foreign Language Correspondence Clerk), Europasekretär/in (European Language Secretary), Welthandelskorrespondent/in (Multilingual Correspondence Clerk) and Translator. F+U is the only education provider in southern Germany to offer state recognised vocational language training for Japanese. Recognised status has also been awarded for Chinese, English, French, Spanish and Russian.

The F+U Academy of Languages offers internship programmes within the framework of Erasmus+. This EU programme gives young people the chance to participate in a language course abroad in either another European country or in Heidelberg, and then complete a commercial internship.

The Academy of Languages rounds off its range of courses with the organisation of language tours and the International Prep School (preparation for the external Feststellungsprüfung university entrance exam).
